FAIRCHILD ANNOUNCES THAT ITS TWO LARGEST SHAREHOLDERS HAVE ENTERED INTO A STOCKHOLDERS' AGREEMENT

McLean, Virginia (September 10, 2008) – The Fairchild Corporation (NYSE: FA) announced today that Jeffrey Steiner and his family, and Phoenix FA Holdings LLC have reached agreement on all material terms of a Stockholders' Agreement.

Phoenix, which in December, 2007 completed a purchase of 4,701,080 shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company pursuant to a tender offer, owns a total of 6,959,288 shares of Fairchild Class A Common Stock. The Steiner Family owns 3,973,960 shares of Class A Common Stock and 2,593,996 shares of Class B Common Stock. The Agreement commits Phoenix and the Steiner Family to vote for each other's representatives to the Company's Board of Directors, and to vote their shares together on any proposal submitted to the Company's shareholders. It also contains mutual rights and options with respect to the shares of the other, and provides the Steiner Family with a one-year option to purchase up to 20% of all Company shares owned by Phoenix. The strike price for the option is equal to Phoenix' purchase cost, including expenses, plus interest at the prime rate.

"This Stockholders' Agreement formalizes the intention of the parties to work together on a restructuring of the Company for the benefit of Fairchild and all its shareholders," said Phillip Sassower, a Managing Member of Phoenix.

Jeffrey Steiner, Chief Executive Officer and former long time Chairman of The Fairchild Corporation stated: "I have enjoyed a long standing relationship with the principals of Phoenix and believe that by joining our team, new opportunities for stabilization and growth will become available to Fairchild."

The Company intends to file the Stockholders' Agreement as an exhibit to Form 8K upon receipt of a fully executed copy.
